

The Central and East European Coalition

invites you to a policy webinar

Resilience and Russian Interference: Neutralizing the Kremlin's Campaign to Dismantle Democracy

CEEC is holding a virtual policy discussion on the Kremlin's disinformation campaigns, Putin's recent attempts at revisionism, their role in the changing political landscape, and implications for upcoming elections. Panelists will explore effective counter-narratives to fight back on multiple levels, including in the political, economic, and military spheres, and how the Three Seas Initiative should be a positive factor in this challenge.

Friday, September 18, 2020
10:00-11:00 a.m.

Confirmed speakers:
Ambassador William Courtney
Lieutenant General Ben Hodges
Mr. David Kramer

Additional speakers to be announced.

Please register at: www.eventbrite.com/e/resilience-and-russian-interference-tickets

The discussion will be held via Zoom – secure link to be provided.

If you have questions, please contact the Joint Baltic American National Committee at jbanc@jbanc.org

For more information on the CEEC, please visit <https://www.ceecoalition.us/>